

CELEBRATION OF VEER BAL DIWAS

UG Department of Mass Communication and Commerce celebrates Veer Bal Diwas

■ JL NEWS SERVICE

JAMMU, Dec 27: Gandhi Memorial College observed Veer Bal Diwas on 26 December 2025 in compliance with the directions of the University Grants Commission (UGC), which has asked all Higher Education Institutions across the country to observe the day to honour the courage, sacrifice, and resilience of the Sahibzadas and to nurture strong moral values among the youth.

The programme was organised by the UG Department of Mass Communication and Commerce.

On the occasion, the Principal of Gandhi Memorial College, Prof. Satish Talashi, highlighted the historical importance of Veer Bal Diwas and emphasised the need to remember the supreme sacrifices made by the Sahibzadas for truth and righteousness.

UG Coordinator Pradeep Pandita referred to the UGC advisory and stated that observing Veer Bal Diwas in educational institutions is essential to instil values of courage, integrity, and patriotism among students. He added that such observances help young minds understand India's rich history.

As part of the observance, students participated enthusiastically by preparing drawings reflecting the spirit and significance of Veer Bal Diwas. Students Kartik, Aryan, and Manisha also recited a soulful poem paying tribute to the young martyrs.

The programme concluded with faculty members Ms. Meenu Khazanchi, Ms. Meenakshi Safaya, and Ms. Honey Sharma sharing their views on the historical, moral, and educational relevance of Veer Bal Diwas.

